Professional Experience

Gabriela Chambi is an associate in the firm's Washington, DC office. She primarily represents consumer finance companies and other clients in litigation and government investigations and enforcement actions. Originally from Bolivia, Gabriela is a bilingual attorney fluent in English and Spanish. Her practice includes translating and analyzing documents in Spanish, and she is a member of the Hispanic National Bar Association.

Prior to joining Hudson Cook, Gabriela worked with a Mid-Atlantic litigation law firm where she provided counsel to clients involved in construction, employment, and professional liability disputes.

Before entering private practice, Gabriela clerked for the District Court of Maryland in Montgomery County.

Gabriela is licensed to practice in the District of Columbia and Maryland.

Gabriela graduated from the American University Washington College of Law, where she was the Note and Comment Editor for the American University International Law Review.
