PRACTICE AREAS

Mortgage Lending and Servicing

Professional Experience

Jed is a partner in the Pennsylvania office and chair of the firm's Mortgage Lending and Servicing Practice Group. His practice focuses on state and federal consumer finance regulatory compliance for banks and non-bank consumer credit providers, with a particular emphasis on mortgage lending and servicing. He also advises clients on credit reporting, debt collection, unfair trade practice, privacy and data security, and electronic commerce laws and regulations. Jed is a co-author of the RESPA/TIL Integrated Disclosures chapter of The Law of Truth in Lending and the author of the Mortgage Bankers Association's Compliance Essentials: HELOC Resource Guide.

Prior to joining Hudson Cook, Jed was First Vice President of MBNA America Bank, N.A. and was responsible for advising the bank on all aspects of its mortgage lending operations, including regulatory compliance and the negotiation of mortgage loan sale/purchase agreements, subservicing agreements and outsourcing agreements.

Jed is a Fellow of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers. He is the Former Chair of the Consumer Law Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and is a member of the Consumer Financial Services Committee of the American Bar Association's Business Law Section. He is also a member of the Legal Issues and Regulatory Compliance Committee of the Mortgage Bankers Association.

Jed received his law degree with honors in 1993 from Rutgers School of Law-Camden where he was a Notes and Casenotes Editor of the Rutgers Law Journal. He holds a Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude, in International Relations from St. Joseph's University.

Jed is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
