Professional Experience

Dan is a partner in the firm's Maryland office. He provides regulatory compliance advice for a variety of consumer credit products, with a focus on Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z, and credit card lending, retail charge programs, and other open-end credit offerings. Dan works with both large banks and regional lenders to ensure their programs and documentation, including credit card agreements, periodic statements and other consumer-facing documentation, complies with federal and state law. Dan also has extensive experience in developing closed-end loan and installment sale programs, and works with national forms providers, state and nationally-chartered depository institutions, and licensed entities on all aspects of regulatory compliance related to these programs.

Prior to joining Hudson Cook, Dan was an associate with Franklin & Prokopik, P.C. in Baltimore, Maryland.

Dan is a member of the American Bar Association, Section of Business Law, Consumer

Financial Services Committee and the Maryland State Bar Association.

Dan received his law degree in 2000 from the University of Maryland School of Law. He was a member of Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honors Fraternity. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in both Political Science and Justice Studies from Frostburg State University where he was a Merit Scholarship Recipient.
