Anastasia Caton

Patty Covington, Robert Gage and Anastasia Caton discuss a myriad of issues a financial institution should consider when developing, implementing and managing crisis accommodation and modification programs. They discuss the different types of accommodations and modifications available, front end issues related to accepting requests, state law issues, credit reporting considerations, and process-related issues, as well as back end issues like record-keeping. This webinar will focus on considerations for personal property-secured credit, as well as secured and unsecured installment lending.

Hudson Cook is hosting additional Compliance Coffee Breaks to address specific concerns in the financial services industry during the COVID-19 crisis.

Please Note: This online program has not been pre-approved for CLE credit. A certificate of attendance will be available upon request for self-submission. Please email jnixon@hudco.com to request a certificate of attendance. Your state Bar may not accept self-submissions or may limit the number of hours allowed.
