

Catherine Brennan to participate on CLE Webinar Panel on August 23

August 14, 2017 |

Catherine Brennan, a Hudson Cook partner, is one of three attorneys who will present a CLE webinar on August 23, 2017, titled "Structuring Merchant Cash Advances: Alternative Financing for Emerging Companies, Lessons From Recent Cases."

The CLE webinar will equip finance counsel to structure and document merchant cash advance transactions. The panel will discuss recent cases that distinguish merchant cash advances (MCAs) from conventional loans, and outline best practices for avoiding loan categorization, perfecting a UCC security interest, and complying with state licensing and usury statutes.

Joining Catherine on the panel is Stefan Savic, a partner with Shipkevich in New York City, and Mark Dabertin, special counsel with Pepper Hamilton in Berwyn, Penn.
