

Hudson Cook Launches "The Data Edge" - A Monthly Webinar Series Focused on Data Compliance

Developments that Matter to Your Data Compliance

May 27, 2025 |

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[Hanover, MD - May 27, 2025] - Hudson Cook, LLP is proud to announce the launch of The Data Edge: Developments that Matter to Your Data Compliance, a new monthly webinar series designed to help privacy and compliance professionals stay informed and prepared in a rapidly evolving regulatory landscape.

Led by Hudson Cook partners Megan Nicholls and Webb McArthur, the 30-minute series will provide timely, practical insights into the latest federal and state legal developments with a strong focus on privacy, data security, and the emerging role of artificial intelligence in risk and compliance.

What Attendees Can Expect:

- Updates on new and emerging legislation, regulations, and enforcement trends
- Insights into data governance and security obligations across industries
- Actionable guidance on navigating the growing intersection of AI and compliance

"We've seen a sharp rise in the volume and complexity of data-related regulations at both the state and federal level," said Megan Nicholls. "This series is designed to help compliance professionals cut through the noise and focus on the developments that actually matter to their organizations."

"The intersection of privacy, data security, and AI is evolving faster than ever," added Webb McArthur. "We're looking forward to helping attendees anticipate challenges, understand risk, and stay a step ahead."

First Session: June 24, 2025 | 2:00-2:30 PM ET

The Data Edge will take place on the fourth Tuesday of each month. Registration is free and open to professionals in compliance, legal, privacy, and technology roles.

Engage with the Series

Subscribers are encouraged to submit questions and suggest topics for future sessions, creating a dynamic and responsive conversation centered around the most pressing data compliance challenges.
