August 13, 2018 |

On August 10, Auto Finance News quoted Hudson Cook Partner Justin Hosie on the CFPB's new "regulatory sandbox," known as the Global Financial Innovation Network (GFIN). Although the idea of a regulatory sandbox isn't new, the previous "Project Catalyst" under former CFPB director Richard Corday " . . . didn't carry much credence," said Justin. "The idea is simple: there are regulatory ambiguities, and rather than keeping your fingers crossed that you won't get in trouble - you can get approval."

Justin primarily focuses his practice on regulatory compliance for alternative financial service providers, including consumer lenders, rent-to-own providers, pawnbrokers and small business lenders.
