

Partner Catherine Brennan elected to Governing Committee of the Conference on Consumer Finance Law

April 3, 2019 |

The Conference on Consumer Finance Law (CCFL) announced at its spring meeting that it elected Catherine Brennan to the Governing Committee. CCFL is a non-profit organization founded in 1926 by members of the legal profession and the financial services industry to offer educational services, publications and research relating to consumer financial services law. The Governing Committee establishes policies and directs the activities of the CCFL.

The members of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers also recently elected Catherine as a Fellow. Fellows of the College have achieved preeminence in the field of consumer financial services law and have made repeated and substantial contributions to the promotion of learning and scholarship in consumer financial services law.
