- Description

States across the U.S. are continuing to adopt revisions to Article 9 that could impact the content of repossession notices. All states are expected to adopt these changes by 2025. Do you need to update your notices? Is there a multistate compliance solution during this awkward uptake period as some states have adopted the revisions and others have not? Join Anastasia Caton from Hudson Cook for a discussion of the changes and ways your business can get ahead of them.
