Description

As states take a more active role in consumer protection enforcement, Unfair, Deceptive, or Abusive Acts or Practices (UDAP or UDAAP) laws are becoming a powerful regulatory tool shaping compliance expectations across the credit and collection landscape. But what exactly are states doing with their UDAP authority and how does that change the way organizations should approach compliance? In this webinar, sponsored by CSS Impact, a panel of experts will break down how different states are defining, interpreting, and enforcing UDAP statutes, and what that means for agencies, creditors, and debt buyers.
