Seeking 50 CLE general credit minutes.

Recent federal and state litigation affects specialty consumer reporting agencies handling tenant screening, bank account and check-history data, alternative payment reporting, and identity-verification and fraud-risk analytics. Join Jay Harris and Vince Pascarella, who will examine key federal and state court decisions affecting these specialty consumer reporting agencies' FCRA, GLBA, and state privacy law obligations. Panelists will provide practical guidance for counsel advising specialty CRAs and data vendors involved in rent payment and alternative data reporting, public records reporting, account verification, and consumer fraud prevention.
