Old Data, New Data Flows: Advanced Tech And Privacy Concerns For Screeners

Legal/CompliancePDC

2:00 PM - 2:45 PM

Salon CD

Description

Screeners today are facing more choices in getting data, promising improved efficiency, accuracy, and usability. But new kinds of platforms, technology service providers, and other vendors present novel legal compliance issues. In this panel we will discuss new data flow models and how screeners should manage these models. How do you define these relationships, by contract and through regular business dealings? How do evolving privacy laws impact who is responsible for what? And how do you handle consumer Data Subject Requests, disputes, or other complaints?
