Practical Insight into the Automotive Finance Industry

Hudson Cook, LLP, has a deep bench of automotive and personal property consumer finance lawyers. Our lawyers practicing in this area include present and past bar association leaders, frequent contributors to automotive and consumer finance trade association publications and conferences, widely published authors and former in-house counsel for some of the largest participants in the consumer automotive finance industry. Together we have a comprehensive understanding of the legal and compliance needs of this industry, and extensive practical experience in this area.

Lawyers in our Automotive and Personal Property Finance practice area offer a wide range of legal and compliance support for clients in these industries, including banks, sales finance companies, auto dealers, leasing companies, ancillary product providers, forms companies and technology companies.

We regularly advise clients on federal and state laws pertaining to:

- Advertising, including e-mail marketing and telemarketing
- Arbitration
- Consumer and commercial personal property finance and leasing
- Credit reporting
- Data management
- Data security
- Debt collection practices
- Electronic payments and commerce
• Fair lending
• Information management
• Licensing
